

Quack Quack™

The Call of the Farm Game

All the colorful animals from the farm are playing in the field.

The little farm helpers need to make sure all the animals are on the farm by calling them.

Be the first helper to call the animals
matching the colors on the dice to win.

This game of quick observation will have the whole family mooing like a cow.

Contents

8 animal cards

3 dice

4 scoring boards

16 scoring coins.

Purpose of the game

Be the first player to complete the scoring board by calling 4 animals.

Preparation of the game

Each player uses 1 scoring board.

Place the 8 animal cards face up between the players.
Before the game, players decide how to call the animal that corresponds to the colors on the 3 dice:

Make the animal sound:

Moo! Quack, Quack! Oink, Oink!

OR

Say the animal name:

Cow! Duck! Pig!

Playing the game

The youngest player starts the first game.
For following games, the player who just won starts the new game.

Taking turns in a clockwise direction, players roll the 3 dice.

Players then identify the three-colored animal card that corresponds to the three colors on the dice.

The first player to call the animal
(by saying its name or making its sound)
wins a scoring coin and rolls the dice again

Winning the game

The first player to complete his/her scoring board with 4 scoring coins wins the game.

2 to 4 players – Ages 3 and up – Play time: 10 minutes
